Li Lei is thirteen now. He began to study in a secondary school two years ago. His home is in a small village, and it's nearly five kilometers from his school. He has to get up early in the morning and run to school. He is never late for school. His father thinks Li Lei is too tired. He wants to borrow some money to buy a bike for him. Li Lei doesn't agree because he knows his mother is always ill and the family spends much money on medicine. He keeps running every day. He becomes stronger and stronger. He runs fastest in his class.

Last week there was a sports meeting in his school. Li Lei ran faster than any other boy and got the first place in the boy's 1,500 metres. The whole school knew him. His classmates and teachers were very proud of him. He was happy, too. He ran home fast to tell his parents about the good news.

七、Dear Principal Li,

We are writing to recommend Victor as the new chairperson of the Students' Union. We think he'll be an excellent chairperson because he has many good personal qualities. Victor is a hard-working student. He always does extra work in class. He is also helpful. In our class, he often helps other students with their studies. He is very clever and confident. He often comes up with good ideas. He always gets high marks in tests. He's good at spoken Chinese and English. He can do anything if he tries his best. He is never afraid of speaking in front of the whole class.

He is also organized and never forgets to do the things he needs to do and works to high standards.

We think that Victor has all the qualities a good chairperson should have. We hope that you will agree with us.

Yours sincerely
Class 1, Grade 9

Everybody likes to have a good time, but did you know that laughing is good for your health? Scientists believe that laughing can help your body fight illness. Because of this, an Indian doctor opened the first laughter club in 1995.

There are now more than 1,000 laughter clubs around the world. A laughter club is a place where you can go to laugh your way to happiness and good health. Steve Wilson, the man who took laughter clubs to America, said, "We laugh with each other, but never at each other. At first the laughter exercises feel a bit false. But soon the laughter becomes real."

Laughter is very important when we communicate with other people. It helps us make friends and understand each other better. We can laugh with people all over the world. It is the same in any language. So don't be afraid to laugh. It's good for your health.

Colours and Moods

Do you know anything interesting about colours? Now I will tell you what different colours represent and how they affect our moods.

Here are the examples. Blue is one of the calm and peaceful colours. When you walk into a blue room, you may feel relaxed. As a warm colour, orange represents joy. It can bring you success and cheer you up when you feel sad. Green is a kind of energetic colour. It can bring you energy, as it represents new life and growth. Red is a kind strong colour. Wearing red can make it easier for you to take action.

My favourite colour is white because it can make me feel calm and peaceful. It reminds me of a peaceful and pure life.

Mrs. White, a fifty-four-year-old woman, lives in a small town. Her husband died several years ago. Her son, Bill, works in an office in London. And her daughter is in the same town with her. But she lives in her husband's house. Only the old woman stayed in the old house by herself.

One day, Mrs. White received a letter from Bill. The young man missed her very much. He hoped she would go to the capital soon. The woman was happy and decided to start the next morning. She took a bus to the railway station and bought a ticket. Before she went in, suddenly she remembered she hadn't locked the gate of the house. As she forgot her daughter's telephone number, she hurried to the post office and bought a stamp and an envelope. In her letter she told her daughter to lock the gate right now. Then she put the envelope into the post box. At the entrance, a man stopped her and said, "Your ticket, please." Mrs. White had a look at her hand. She began to cry; she was holding the letter in her hand.

七、Dear Editor,

I am a student in Grade Three. We have made a survey—"To whom you will go when in trouble". Here are the results. Most of the students will go to their classmates or friends when in trouble because they're almost of the same age, they can talk with, communicate with and understand each other easily. Some students will tell their teachers or parents about their troubles as the teachers and parents have rich experience and love them very much. They can be trusted by these students. Only a few students solve their problems all by themselves. They hate to talk with others and can't get on well with others. They have few friends.

In my opinion, when in trouble we'd better ask our teachers, parents, friends or classmates for help.

Yours sincerely,

Li Ping

It was quite late at night. I was reading a newspaper alone in my room when I heard someone knocking at the door. I opened it and saw a young man with glasses standing there. He said that he was a friend of my brother's and wanted to have a talk with him. I didn't know if my brother had such a friend, but I had to let him in.

As we talked, I found that he knew nothing about my brother. Then I came to know that his words were not true. Suddenly my brother rushed in and the young man was so surprised that he didn't know what to do for a moment. We caught the man and called the police at the same time.

W: Money is not the problem. I find it easier to follow football on television. When I watch the game on the football field, I feel as if I'm too far away from the players.

M: I know just what you mean. On television you can see the game more clearly. But it is so exciting with all the cheers and shouting around you when you watch it on the football field. And I always cheer and shout with everyone else at the end of the match.

W: You are right there, but I'd like to know exactly what I'm shouting for. And if I can't even see who has the ball, I can't get very excited. So I really prefer watching it on television.

M: I see you point. Well, enjoy the game.

B) Jack planted several apple trees in his garden four years ago. Yesterday he and his mother went to pick apples. The old woman worked the whole day and she was very tired. When she climbed up the tree, she fell to the ground and broke one of her legs. Jack took his mother to see the doctor. The doctor said she had to be put in the hospital. Jack was worried about it. "Go to the town to borrow some money from your uncle," said the old woman. "I'm sure he'll help us."

Jack had to go to see his uncle, an owner of a shop. The man learned what had happened to his sister and lent one hundred pounds to Jack. The young man hid the money in one of his boots. His uncle gave him another two pounds and said, "Take a bus, Jack, then you'll soon get home."

But Jack didn't want to spend the two pounds. On his way home, three strong men stopped him while he was walking through a forest. They wanted to rob Jack. The young man tried his best to fight them. At last they caught him, searched all his pockets and found only two pounds.

One of the three men was surprised and asked, "Why did you risk(冒险) your life for only two pounds?"

"I thought you wanted to rob me of the one hundred pounds in my boots!" answered the young man.

For your next trip, why not visit Singapore? Singapore is a small city to the southeast of China, but there are many things to do. It doesn't have any beaches or mountains, but it has a very famous zoo, a beautiful plant garden, and lots of museums. It is also a wonderful place for shopping.

Don't plan on driving a car in Singapore. The traffic is heavy in some parts of the city and most cars are not allowed in the centre of the city. If you decide to visit Singapore, bring enough money. Living in Singapore is quite expensive. Also, pack light clothes. Singapore is very hot all the year round.

七、 Li Ming didn't get home after school last Friday afternoon. His parents were very worried and reported it to the police. They were told that Li Ming left with a strong man that afternoon. The police believed it was a kidnapping case. At about 1 pm last Sunday, one man called Li Ming's parents and asked them to give him 100,000 yuan for getting their son back. Mr. Li pretended to agree with him and told the police about this. At about 9 am yesterday morning, the police caught the kidnapper successfully when he came to get money. At last, Li Ming was saved. Li Ming's parents were very grateful to the police.

Hello, listeners. Welcome to People's Hospital Radio. Before our music programme at four, I'm going to say something about our hospital again.

The hospital can sleep 800 patients. There are 8 beds in each room. The visiting hours are in the afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30 and in the evening from 7:00 to 8:00. But remember only two people can see you at the same time.

The other rules are about our hours. We wake you up at 6 o'clock, and breakfast is at 8 o'clock, lunch is at noon. There's tea at 3:30 and supper is at 6 o'clock. You can see the "No Smoking" sign. I'm sure you understand why. If you do need to smoke, there are some smoking rooms where you can smoke.

九、Dear Sir,

I'm a middle school student. I'm writing to tell you something around us. Nowadays, there are many left-behind children whose parents work away from their hometown. Most of them are from the countryside. They have many problems. They are always lonely and stressed because they are short of their parents' love. At the same time, they are easy to make mistakes because of this.

How to solve their problems? In my opinion, the school should pay more attention to the left-behind children. The government can set up a parents' school for these children on holidays. We can also raise money for these children. As well, their parents should come back to their children and help them with their study and life if possible. As the song says, "If everyone gives their love, the world will be better."

Mr Jones and Mr Brown worked in the same office. One day Mr Jones said to Mr Brown, "We are going to have a small party at our house next Wednesday evening. Would you and your wife like to join us? Mr Brown said." Thank you very much. That is very kind of you. We are free that evening, I think, but I will telephone my wife and ask her. Maybe she wants to go somewhere else that evening. So Mr Brown went to the other room and telephoned. When he came back, he looked very sorry.

"What is the matter?" said Mr Jones. "Did you speak to your wife?"

"No," answered Mr Brown, "She wasn't there. My little son answered the telephone. I said to him, 'Is your mother there, David?' and he answered, 'No, she is not in the house!' 'Where is she then?' I asked, 'She is somewhere outside!' 'What is she doing?' 'she is looking for me!'"

十、Dear Anna,

Do you know Jackie Chan? He is my favourite film star. I want to tell you something about him. He was born on April 7th, 1954 in Hong Kong. He is not very tall but very strong. I think his big nose is very charming. He is very good at Chinese Kung fu, so he often plays the lead role in action films. Besides gaining these achievements in the film industry, he also devotes much of his time to charity. Now, you have known much about him. I think you will like him too.

I hope to hear from you soon!

Yours sincerely,
Mary
